

Words to the Songs in Incredible Journey

1) The Race

The race isn't run til it's done
The race isn't run til its done
Keep on dreaming, don't stop believing,
The race isn't run til it's done.

I may be on top some old day
And you who were there yesterday
Will come shake my hand and say "good job, son".
The race isn't run till it's done.

I'm not gonna settle back yet and all that I hoped for forget
While there's life in me I'll reach up to the sun
The race isn't run til it's done.

The race isn't run til it's done
The race isn't run til its done
Keep on dreaming, don't stop believing,
The race isn't run til it's done.

2) All Around

All around, let your love flow all around
Where there's no love to be found
Pack it up and send it out.

Let it flow to those who are lonely
Let it flow where there's hatred only
Let it flow and spread for a million miles.

Let it flow to light up dark places
Let it flow to cheer up sad faces
Let it flow let your love flow all around.

All around, let your love flow all around
Through the streets of every town
In all the world let love abound.

Let it flow to bless and to comfort
Let it flow to heal those who've been hurt
Let it flow where there are cares to bear.

Let it flow to bring hope and courage
Let it flow to lift up and nourish
Let it flow let your love flow all around.

3) Shalom Aleichem

Traditional Hebrew lyrics,
from the Siddur - prayerbook,
for Sabbath eve:

Peace be unto you, O ministering angels...

4) People Hurt

Oftentimes people lash out
Act rashly and rudely shout
Before you conclude they lack worth
Please remember that people hurt.

I'm not looking to make an excuse
For anybody's abuse
I'm just asking to use restraint first
For it happens that people hurt.

People hurt and in their pain
Even the strongest are likely to change
We can't assess the extent of distress
People who hurt need more love not less.

Let compassion well up in you
Soon enough pain will visit you too
Hold your scorn and be on the alert
Please remember that people hurt.

People hurt and in their pain
Even the strongest are likely to change
We can't assess the extent of distress
People who hurt need more love not less.

5) Incredible Journey

What an incredible journey we are on
What an incredible journey we are on
Unfolding, evolving growing spiritually strong
What an incredible journey we are on.

How great is the Helper who guides us as we go
How great is the Helper who guides us as we go
Illuminating the path as we venture to and fro
How great is the Helper who guides us as we go

It's such an astonishing view along the way
It's such an astonishing view along the way
Bundles of wonders take my breath away
It's such an astonishing view along the way.

6) Fix What You Have Broken

Fix what you have broken if you can
Don't walk away and leave it there to stand
Try to find a remedy to restore lost harmony
Fix what you have broken if you can.

Fix what you have broken don't delay
Don't put it off until some rainy day
Map a course to set things right, keep that noble goal in sight
Fix what you have broken don't delay.

Fix what you have broken won't you please
Your heart was cold you acted carelessly
Don't leave any stone unturned to make amends to those you've hurt
Fix what you have broken if you can.

Ba-yom ha-hoo yih-hee-yeh Adonai eh-chod

10) Picture Yourself

Picture yourself in a place of great expansiveness
Soft blue sky as far as you can see
Mountains high, trees so green, fresh pure air
Picture yourself without a care.

Picture yourself totally innocent
A new born babe just come into the world
The slate is clean, you've no regrets, of guilt no trace
Picture yourself in such a place.

Picture yourself healthy and radiant
A symphony of life in perfect tune
No illnesses, no ailments, not a single woe
Picture yourself that way from head to toe.

Picture yourself in a place of great enlightenment
The people there all kind and filled with grace
Bliss is in the air, compassion's all around

Every cell overflowing with joy
You feel so high, your heart is full, life is sweet
Picture yourself in ecstasy.

12) The Center

The center is calm, the center is clear
And there is nothing in this world to interfere
With center's love, with center's light
The center is joy, the center's delight
The center is good.

The center is deep, the center is vast
When all else passes on the center is what lasts
The center's complete, the center is whole
The center is who you really are, the center's no role
The center is good.

The center holds great hopes for you and me
The center is free, at center you'll see.

The center holds everything that you are looking for
The center's the well, the holy spring
Center flows on and on, no end and no beginning
